CHARLOTTE, NC – Tosco Music presents FABFEST - Charlotte's First Beatles Festival - June 14- 16, 2019 - a weekend celebration of Beatles music that will be unlike anything previously staged in the Southeast! Beatles fans from near and far will be arriving in Charlotte to have a fabulous time with John, Paul, George and Ringo in their hearts and great music ringing in their ears!

FABFEST includes two evening concerts at Knight Theater in Uptown Charlotte (The Fab Four, Tosco Music Beatles Tribute), and two days of live music, speakers and daytime activities at nearby Fairfield by Marriott on Saturday and Sunday.

The FABFEST Friday evening headline concert is The Fab Four, the Emmy-Award-winning Beatles tribute band known as The Ultimate Tribute! Saturday night's event is Charlotte's very own Saturday night Tosco Music Beatles Tribute! Tosco Music has been presenting this annual, sell-out community event for the past 15 years. This popular Charlotte tradition brings together fans of all ages to enjoy a uniquely wonderful evening of local and regional acts performing Beatles songs in a variety of musical genres, interlaced with audience singalongs of the famous tunes that everyone knows so well.

Featured guests include Peter Asher (Sunday only), The Cyrkle, Vivek Tiwary, Anthony Robustelli and Beatlesque. Many local bands and musicians will perform on Saturday 10-5pm and Sunday 12-5pm, and daytime activities at Fairfield by Marriott will include rare Beatles concert footage, memorabilia and vinyl, a family fun room, plus a Beatles Art Contest, trivia and costume contests, and more!

Tosco Music is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that has been enriching Charlotte's community through music for 30 years. In addition to five Tosco Music Parties each year, Tosco Music also provides music scholarships, Senior Singalongs at senior centers, performance opportunities at a family friendly open mic and public community events.
